Breakthrough Coaching Programme

This is a highly personalized development journey

– each leader will focus on the specific vital practices they need to be better at.

About the Programme

— Ideal for middle to senior level leaders who want to become more effective leaders.

— Using the Vital Practices for Effective Leaders as a guide for development.

— Leaders get clarity on the realities in their arena, figure out their next moves, practice the vital skills, and gain perspective on their growth and results.

— This programme can also add significant value to leaders who are in transition to a different role.
